White Plains, Maryland—VConnections, Inc. is proud to announce it is now a public charity with tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. This status will further broaden the organization’s access to resources and strengthen its ability to serve veterans and their families in the southern Maryland region.

“Obtaining official tax exempt status is a major milestone for VConnections,” remarked Executive Director William (Bill) Buffington. “We can now expand our fundraising activities and fully realize our goals to help southern Maryland veterans and their families find available resources for health and wellness support, legal assistance, employment, and housing.

VConnections has partnered with local county, state, and federal agencies to specifically address veteran concerns and issues. Outreach activities offered include the organization’s popular Coffee Breaks sponsored by Chick-fil-A in La Plata and Waldorf, MD, Servicewomen Wednesdays, and seasonal fantasy fishing trips and golf clinics.

About VConnections:

VConnections is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation whose objectives are to provide an effective triangular organizational approach through health and wellness resources, education awareness, and benefits and claims support and assistance. Services are available to southern Maryland veterans and their families, with an emphasis on the rural areas of Charles, Calvert, and St. Mary’s counties.
